SEARCHING CONTENT

Basic Search

Locate relevant results based on your search term(s). Basic search is a good place to start your research.

Advanced Search

Customize your search with more limiting options to target relevant results. You can use advanced search to run complex searches for specific results, or to perform open searches for a broad view of available content.

- Subject: Choose this field to search document tags and find results fully focused on your topic. Try subject if your basic search produces too many results.
- Publication Title: Use this option to find articles or documents from a particular publication like The Globe and Mail.
- Entire Document: Pick this field to search within the entire text of documents. This option performs a broad search for any mention of your terms, so you can find precise phrases within results, or locate articles that touch on specific concepts.
- Search Operators: Use these drop-downs to connect your search terms. AND ensures your results mention both terms. OR broadens your search to results mentioning either term. NOT excludes a term.

The screenshot shows the Gale In Context Canada Advanced Search page. At the top, there's a search bar and navigation options like 'Browse Topics', 'Search History', 'Get Link', and 'Highlights And Notes'. Below the search bar, there are 'SEARCH OPTIONS' including 'Advanced Search', 'Publication Search', and 'Topic Finder'. The main section is titled 'Advanced Search' and features three search rows, each with a search field, an 'And' dropdown, and an 'in' dropdown set to 'Keyword'. There's an 'Add a Row' button and a 'Search' button. Below this, there are 'MORE OPTIONS' including checkboxes for 'Full Text Documents', 'Peer-Reviewed Journals', 'Canadian Content', and 'Document Contains Images'. There are also sections for 'by publication date(s)' with radio buttons for 'All Dates', 'Before', 'On', 'After', and 'Between', and 'by document type' with a dropdown menu.

BROWSING CONTENT

Topic Pages

Access a one-stop portal of information focused on frequently searched subjects. Topic pages begin with an overview essay with background information to build your understanding. Additional materials are organized, so that you can easily continue exploring.

- Reference entries quickly build your knowledge of a topic.
- Videos, Images, and Audio from sources like CBC News provide engaging coverage, and are perfect for use in projects and presentations.
- Magazines and News articles from premium Canadian sources present recent perspectives with new results added every day.
- Academic Journals deliver advanced analysis from scholarly and peer-reviewed publications.
- Primary Sources and Creative Works immerse you in Canadian history and literature.
- Case Overviews, Critical Essays, Websites, and other results cover the full context of topics, and take your research to the next level.

WORKING WITH RESULTS

Search Results

Click a content type to access sorting and filtering options.

- Sort By: Use this drop-down to view articles with the highest relevance based on factors like the frequency and location of references to your search terms, or to view the newest or oldest articles.
- Filter Your Results: Click to access and apply limits based on Date Published, Subjects, Document Type, and more. Or, select Search Within and submit additional terms to refine your search. Use these options to narrow your topic when you have a large number of results.
- Topic Finder: When available, click this option to generate a visual representation of your search results by topic and subtopic. Use Topic Finder to discover a more narrow, unique research path, or to identify connections between topics. You can also access Topic Finder within Advanced Search to execute a visual search. As you interact with Topic Finder, it provides an updated list of results. Simply click an article's title to view the result.

WORKING WITH DOCUMENTS

Tools

Manage your research with document tools and features.

- Use Cite to generate a citation using MLA, APA, or Chicago style. Export the citation into a variety of tools, or simply copy and paste it into your bibliography.
- Click Send to... to email or export the result to your Google Drive™ or OneDrive™ account, allowing you to access it indefinitely. A Gale In Context: Canada folder is automatically created to make it easy to find your exported documents.
- Download or Print the document to keep a copy of the result, including any highlights and notes you've added.
- Use Get Link to create a URL back to practically any page you choose. Copy and paste the link in documents, on websites, or anywhere else you'd normally place a URL. This tool provides an easy way for you to share individual results, searches, and more.
- Annotate important text with Highlights and Notes. Click and drag to select text within a result, choose a highlighter color, and add notes to the selection. Download, Print, or Send to... email, Google Drive™, or OneDrive™ to retain your highlights and notes with the result. You can also click the Highlights and Notes tool and then choose View All Highlights and Notes to access a summary of your annotations. Once you leave the database, your work is erased to protect your privacy.
- Select Translate to view a machine translation of the document in the language of your choice.
- Click Listen to have the article read aloud to you. After clicking play, you can download the audio .mp3.
- Explore similar results by selecting articles listed under More Like This. Or, click Related Subjects to find additional documents with similar subject terms. These options link you to further results to boost your understanding and enhance your research.
