

Women of the Revolution Gale In Context: Biography

Activity Goal: Explore the important roles women played in the American Revolution by researching and creating trading cards for eight influential women.

Utilize the Trading Cards

Option One: Student Experts

- You will be assigned one woman to research.
- Use Gale In Context: Biography to research your assigned individual.
- Fill out your card with key facts and accomplishments.
- Share your finding with your teacher to ensure accurate information.
- Exchange cards with classmates to learn about the other women and record their information.

Option Two: Complete Set

- Research all eight women using Gale In Context: Biography.
- Create a full set of trading cards, one for each woman.

Women of the Revolution

Phillis Wheatley

Women of the Revolution

Deborah Sampson

Women of the Revolution

Abigail Adams

Women of the Revolution

Mercy Otis Warren

Deborah Sampson

Notable Information:

Contribution to the Revolution:

Challenges they faced:

Citation:

Phillis Wheatley

Notable Information:

Contribution to the Revolution:

Challenges they faced:

Citation:

Mercy Otis Warren

Notable Information:

Contribution to the Revolution:

Challenges they faced:

Citation:

Abigail Adams

Notable Information:

Contribution to the Revolution:

Challenges they faced:

Citation:

Women of the Revolution

Molly Pitcher

Women of the Revolution

Martha Washington

Women of the Revolution

Margaret Corbin

Women of the Revolution

Sybil Ludington

Martha Washington

Notable Information:

Contribution to the Revolution:

Challenges they faced:

Citation:

Molly Pitcher

Notable Information:

Contribution to the Revolution:

Challenges they faced:

Citation:

Sybil Ludington

Notable Information:

Contribution to the Revolution:

Challenges they faced:

Citation:

Margaret Corbin

Notable Information:

Contribution to the Revolution:

Challenges they faced:

Citation: