

Curriculum Corner

February 2024

CONTENT SPOTLIGHT

What do other countries think about current events? What actions are they taking to fight climate change or spread vaccine availability and awareness? Gale In Context: Global Issues can help answer those questions for your students. Check out this Blog Post to learn how.

SOCIAL STUDIES UPDATES

Gale In Context resources are perfect for your students' National History Day projects. Take a look at this Tip Sheet to see which resources are their best bets.

Utilize our Content Specific Materials to celebrate Women's History Month. Engage even more with this Blog Post.

Coming soon to Gale In Context: For Educators- African American Studies and Latin American Studies high school lesson plans and topic trees. Expect to see these starting in January and adding until April.

ELA UPDATES

Coming soon to Gale In Context: Literature-new topic pages including "Dracula", Colson Whitehead, and "Firekeeper's Daughter".

Use Gale In Context: Opposing Viewpoints to teach argumentative writing with this Lesson Plan.

Gale In Context: For Educators now has a World Literature topic tree.

STEAM UPDATES

Gale In Context: Science has new and updated technology-focused topic pages including Cryptocurrency, Metaverse, and ChatGPT.

Gale In Context: Environmental Studies has new interactive infographics to better engage students with relevant data.

We support Middle School science too! Utilize this Weather and Climate 5E Lesson Plan designed for grades 6-8 utilizing Gale In Context: Science.

ELEMENTARY UPDATES

Want to add some pop culture into your classroom? Take a look at this Blog reviewing how you can find materials within Gale In Context: Elementary.

New to Gale In Context: Elementary? Join our Gale 101 Webinar on February 29th to learn the ins and outs!

Bring poetry to life for your students with our Gale In Context: Elementary Parts of Poetry Escape Room.