

LOVE IN PRIMARY SOURCES

Love has been a topic of interest since the very beginnings of literature, and each culture, movement, and individual approaches it in a unique way.

Log into Gale In Context: Literature and run a Basic Search for “love”. Select the Primary Source section and choose one of the entries. Answer the questions below.

Document Name:

Author:

Brief Description:

Citation:

In your opinion, how does this person feel about love? Do they write about it in a positive or negative light?

How do you feel about love? Do you think the author is correct in their opinion?

Imagine you are joining the author for dinner. What questions would you ask them about their writing? What opinions would you share? How do you think the dinner conversation would turn out?